“In Good Memory” – First Beneficiary

Ali Juma Abdalla

Ali Juma Abdalla, aged 17, whose flourishing football career as Zanzibar’s Under 20’s goalkeeper, was tragically cut short when he recently lost his left arm in a road accident on his way back to town from an away match.

He was awarded the rehabilitation through the “In Good Memory” account.

He was escorted with Salum of Orthopedic Workshop of Mnazi Mmoja hospital to Muhimbili Medical Centre for artificial limb

And managed by Mr Baraka

The limb ready to be worn

It can be used to grab things

He is so happy and proud of his new limb that he prefers to wear short sleeves
